2021 FEDERAL ELECTION PLATFORM ANALYSIS

LIBERAL PARTY OF CANADA

A Liberal Government will:

- Introduce a temporary wage subsidy and rent subsidy stream for sectors like hotels, tour operators, convention centers and festivals experiencing a minimum of 40% revenue loss.
 - Qualifying businesses in these sectors would be able to access a maximum subsidy rate of up to 75%, commensurate to their revenue loss, in order to help cover fixed costs like wages and rent between September 2021 until May 31, 2022.
- Extend the Canada Recovery Hiring Program to March 31, 2022, to make it easier for businesses to increase wages, create new jobs, and grow their business.
- Introduce a refundable tax credit, where small businesses will be able to claim 25% of eligible ventilation improvement expenses of up to $10,000 per building location, with a maximum of $50,000 per company.
 - Eligible expenses could include upgrades or conversions of heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems to meet appropriate health standards.
 - The tax credit will be 50% refundable and will only be available from September 1, 2021 through to the end of the 2022 tax year to incentivize quick upgrades.

CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF CANADA

A Conservative Government will:

- Launch the Canada Job Surge Plan - paying up to 50% of the salary of net new hires for six months following the end of CEWS.
 - The government will pay at least 25% of the salary of a net new hire, with the subsidy increasing up to a maximum of 50% based on how long the new hire has been unemployed.
- Introduce a Dine and Discover Program to support the hospitality and tourism sectors:
 - Provide a 50% rebate for food and non-alcoholic drinks purchased for dine-in from Monday to Wednesday for one month once it is safe to do so, pumping nearly $1 billion into this sector.
 - Launch the Explore and Support Canada initiative with a 15% tax credit for vacation expenses of up to $1,000 per person for Canadians to vacation in Canada in 2022, helping our tourism sector get back on its feet.
 - Eliminate the Liberal escalator tax on alcohol.
- Launch the Main Street Business Loan, offering up to 4 months of pre-pandemic revenue up to a maximum of $200,000, with up to 25% forgiven depending on a company's revenue loss.
- Launch the Rebuild Main Street Tax Credit, which will provide a 25% tax credit on amounts of up to $100,000 that Canadians personally invest in a small business over the next two years.
- Introduce the Canada Investment Accelerator - providing a 5% investment tax credit for any capital investment made in 2022 and 2023, with the first $25,000 to be refundable for small business.
